Luncheon at AJ's Home

Please plan on joining our February RWOAC meeting. AJ has graciously offered to host a luncheon in her home for the occasion.

Please call me or send me an e-mail with how many will be coming with you. (So we can give AJ a guest count)

Bring your ideas of how you see the Republican Women making a difference in our community, state and national levels of government.

We also have the upcoming Propositions on March 2 primary Ballot to talk about. The State Republican Executive Committee placed the propositions on the ballot to gauge the pulse of the voters. This is what the party does to see what's important to the voters. The propositions are non-binding and do not change the law. Only Republicans will be weighing in on these issues Democrats have no propositions on their ballots.

3. I will set the tone for government to operate within budgets using what I call "checkbook economics". Spend only what you have spending, Congress should empower American citizens to stimulate the economy by Congress cutting federal income taxes for all federal taxpayers, rather than spending hundreds of billions of dollars on so-called "federal economic stimulus".

The use of the word "God", prayers, and the Ten Commandments should be allowed at public gatherings and public educational institutions, as well as be permitted on government buildings and property.
